Be Restored, Live Revived

Julie has a passion to speak a message of being Restored so we can live Revived! Life often presents bumps and bruises; a shattered marriage, wayward children, sickness, broken relationships, failure and rejection, but the exciting thing is God can restore the broken hearted. Our lives are not defined by those experiences, but they are being refined and developed. Julie has learned a valuable lesson about life. "If our soul isn't well, our life isn't well." Her deep desire is to help women seek God in the moments of bumps and bruises and ultimately be Restored by His love. When our soul is Restored, our life becomes Revived!

Julie motivates, inspires, and cheers women in all seasons of life to be the "Very Best Woman" God has created her to be. She empowers Moms, single, and married women to live a life of great faith instead of fear. A woman of great faith can change the world and move mountains she never imagined. Her solid faith in God will set her free and set her apart to live the purposeful life.

Julie's messages teach women to:

- Live a life of Passion, Purpose, & Pursuit instead of complacency.
- Be FREE from Failure, not afraid of Failure.
- Let go of the past so life is not full of regret.
- Fight the bullies in our life that keep us stuck in the "stinkin' thinkin'."
- Be a Mom of great influence to leave a great legacy for our children.
- Live a balanced life for the sake of our kids and marriage.
- Notice the miracles in our life to give us a better understanding of God's grace, protection, plan, & purpose.

Julie is the Founder and CEO of Gap Gals Ministry. Gap Gals exists to Unite women, Transform lives, and Share a message of Hope and Revival found in Christ. God put a passion for ministry in her heart since childhood. She has worked in many capacities of ministry; Young Life, MOPS, Church Leadership, and eventually starting her own ministry. A vision was planted in her heart in 2009 to unite women from the local community and speak "life" into their soul so they know they are not alone in their struggle of life. In 2011 she took the leap of faith and officially launched her ministry, www.gapgals.org. Julie has been speaking for the past 10 years to many MOPS groups, women's groups, including her own ministry and her own radio show. She holds a B.A. in Liberal Studies and a M.B.A. with an emphasis in marketing. You can get to know Julie better by visiting her website at www.juliepearson.org.

Julie grew up in the sunny state of California. She married in 1995 to her perfect match, an Oki from Oklahoma, Cannon Pearson. She is deeply in love with her husband and he is her biggest cheerleader. Julie has three beautiful children who often cause her to pause and count her many blessings. She is a very busy mom taxing them from sport to sport. Julie is an avid learner, she loves to read leadership books, study the word of God, tries to blog in her free time, and she has recently found a new sport in tennis. Oh yeah, she loves the beach too (actually any body of water) !

General Speaking Topics

Restored in the Ruin of Failure

Failure is a tough emotion that doesn't sit well in our soul. We all encounter failure, it just looks a little different. If we don't learn how to be Free From Failure, it will continue to Fail us. Julie will share 3 important truths that helped set her Free of the "Big Red Marks" of Failure.

Experiencing God's love in the Miracle

Is there a miracle that stands out in your life? Miracles happen all around us, big or small. Did you ever stop to think that perhaps God's love is displayed in your miracle? As we comprehend God's love for us, we live accepted, not rejected. As we begin to notice the miracles (big or small) in our own life, we will begin to learn some important truths about the character of God; His Grace, Protection, and Purpose in our lives.

A life of Passion, Purpose, and Pursuit

If we can't be comfortable with who we are, we will never be comfortable with where we desire to go and what we want to do. Our passions are born from knowing who God created us to be. As we develop a healthy sense of identity, it will move us in our purpose and pursuits and keep us from a life of complacency

Letting Go of the Anchors

Holding on to our past will keep us anchored at shore. We have been created to experience more. If we want to move into deeper waters, we need to think about the sails on our boat. Julie will share three personal truths that have helped her to let go of the anchors, and experience more (deeper waters).

Fighting the Bullies of "I'm Not Enough"

The bullies of rejection, comparison, and perfection will kill, steal, and destroy many areas of our life. If they linger, they will tell us "I am not enough" and our confidence can be shattered. We must learn to fight these bullies to live wholeheartedly and enjoy everyday life and relationships. Julie will share her personal truths of how she fought the childhood bully that manifested into her adult life and tried to steal, kill, and destroy.

A Great Recipe for Marriage: Setting Goals Together

Setting goals as a married couple is a great recipe in building a solid marriage. Great marriages are successful because they have taken the time to develop a plan of action. They don't wait until disaster hits. Julie will share her personal experience of setting goals every New Year's with her husband, and how this process has built trust, transparency and agreement in her marriage.

A Balanced Life: Avoid the Pitfall of Busy

We live in a world of crazy! But when our lives have balance, we ultimately win the game of life. Balance breeds success, just ask a gymnast who competes on the balance beam. If her body is not aligned and steady, it's a good possibility she will crash. Life is very similar. Julie will share a powerful formula how to keep a balanced perspective so family, kids and self are healthy.

Leaving Behind a Legacy of Faith

At the center of a Mother's heart is her children. The things we do today matters for tomorrow. Leaving behind a great legacy of faith builds a sense of confidence, value, and purpose in our children. Julie will inspire moms to finish the race well in raising children with two key ingredients; The power of prayer and leading by example.
